

Acts of Kindness

Sir John Laing was kind and generous to his employees, to many charities and his friends and family. He cared for the world.

How can you be kind? Put your ideas in the circles.

A grid of nine empty circles arranged in three rows and three columns, intended for students to write their ideas for acts of kindness.